The insurance includes up to 21 days winter sports cover and also provides cover for business trips. Generally, cover under this insurance starts when you leave your home or place of business in the United Kingdom at the start of your trip and finishes immediately upon your return to your home or place of business in the United Kingdom for any reason. For cancellation only, cover starts at the time you pay the premium, or when you book your trip whichever is the later. Personal money will be covered from the time of collection but no more than 72 hours before you travel. If the return is unavoidably delayed for an insured reason, cover will be extended free of charge for the period of the delay.

Long Stay

4. Can I work abroad and still be covered?

Yes, so long as it is not heavy or hazardous manual labour such as building work. Bar work and grape picking, for example, would be covered. Single Trip

Yes, stopovers of up to 48 hours in a higher rated area are covered.

Long Stay

Yes, the rating area for long stay is determined by where the majority of your time will be spent.

11. Can non-UK residents buy the insurance?

Please refer to the list of countries at the back.

14. How do you calculate the number of days for insurance? E.g. if my flight leaves at 23.30hrs, do I charge the extra day?

Please read the Medical Conditions questions on the Application form. The insurers may then agree to delete or amend the exclusion. Please see page 12 for more details.

17. What is a relevant fact?

A relevant fact is one, which is likely to influence us in accepting your insurance. This could be the state of your health or the state of health of a close relative, or if you are planning any hazardous activities. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is 'relevant', you should tell us. If you do not tell us this may result in your claim being invalid. Please call Voyager Insurance Services on 01483 562662.

Winter sports

21. Can I cancel my holiday because of lack of snow?

No, this cannot be covered under any travel insurance policy.

22. Is off-piste skiing covered?

Yes, provided all local guidelines are observed. Please see the Winter sports definition on page 4 of the policy wording.

23. Is snowboarding covered?

Yes.

- 24. Is piste closure covered?
Yes, under the Single Trip and Annual Multi-Trip policies. Not under the Long Stay policy.
- 25. Am I covered if my skis are stolen from the car roof when I have stopped for a meal whilst travelling to another resort?
Yes, but they must be locked on to the rack and must have been forcibly removed. There is no cover for skis left overnight.
- 26. What ski cover is provided under the different policies?
- Single Trip
When the appropriate double premium is paid for winter sports, cover is extended to allow winter sports activities and provides cover for winter sports equipment, ski pack and piste closure.
- Annual Multi-Trip
The policy includes up to 21 days winter sports cover. Cover is provided for winter sports equipment, ski pack and piste closure.
- Long Stay
Winter sports cover is available by doubling the premium for the months that participation is planned. Cover is provided for winter sports equipment and ski pack.
- 28. I go skiing for 4 weeks every year. Can I extend the 21 days on my Annual Multi-Trip policy?
No. We would recommend the Single Trip policy.

Missed Departure

- 1. Am I covered if I miss my flight because of a traffic jam on the motorway?
No, unless the vehicle in which you are travelling has been involved in an accident or broken down.
- 2. Am I covered if my flight from Glasgow to Heathrow is delayed and I miss a connection because one of them is delayed?
Yes, for necessary additional accommodation and travel expenses up to the policy limit, provided you have left sufficient time between the two flights, i.e. planned to arrive at your departure point at the earliest scheduled check-in time.

Baggage

- 1. Am I covered if I lose my contact lenses?
Yes, if they are stolen or damaged in a fire.
- 2. What is a 'reasonable allowance for wear or tear'?
A deduction from the amount paid for the item to reflect its age and likely condition at the time of the loss. The policy is one of indemnity, not 'new for old'.
- 3. Are my belongings covered if they are on a roof rack?
Assuming the items are in a locked roofbox, the insurance will pay up to the policy limits. However, Valuable items and money are not covered when left in a car at any time.
- 4. What should I do if the airline loses or damages my suitcase?
You should report the incident immediately and obtain a 'Property Irregularity Report' from the airline.

5. What happens if the police don't write me a report?
You should obtain a report from your holiday representative, hotelier or local tourist office wherever possible, confirming the loss and reasons why the police would not help.
8. What should I do if I don't discover a loss or breakage until I get home?
Notify Mondial Travel Insurance claims department and the carrier if you believe it happened whilst in transit. Also inform your tour operator and hotel.
9. Is my camcorder worth £800 covered?
It is covered for Loss or theft, under the valuables sub-section within the overall baggage section, but the valuables limit will be much lower than it is worth. The cover for valuables varies from policy to policy. We would recommend you contact your house contents insurers to arrange an extension to cover for your camcorder.
10. What should I do with my belongings if I've gone to the beach and want to have a swim? My hostel doesn't have a safe place to keep them?
You should not leave any money or valuables unattended at any time. If necessary, ask someone YOU KNOW to look after your belongings.
11. If I make a claim under this insurance for some stolen personal effects, will you make a counter claim against my household insurers?
Yes this is a common practice for most classes of insurance and helps keep the overall premium down. It will not prejudice any No Claims Bonus on your household insurance.
12. What is the single item limit?

Single Trip	Long Stay	Annual Multi-Trip
£250	£200	£250

Personal Liability

1. Am I covered if I accidentally cause damage in the hotel I'm staying in?
Yes, up to the policy limit, but subject to the excess (See policy).
2. Why isn't personal liability covered under your personal travel insurance whilst driving?
Travel insurance policies are not designed to provide this sort of cover. We would strongly recommend the purchase of a third party liability top-up policy.

Cancellation & Curtailment

1. Am I covered for cancellation if one of my relatives is taken ill?
Yes, subject to the policy terms and conditions relating to the health of travelling companions and others on whom the journey may depend. The insurance will pay your cancellation costs if your mother (in-law), father (in-law), step parent (in-law), sister (in-law), brother (in-law), wife, husband, son (in-law), daughter (in-law), step child, foster child, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, cousin, partner or fiancé(e) are taken ill before you are due to go away necessitating you to cancel the trip.

2. I booked my holiday 3 weeks ago and have just found out that I'm pregnant. Am I covered to travel and if not, am I covered to cancel?

The insurance will not pay for treatment or surgery arising out of pregnancy or childbirth if you will be more than 24 weeks at the end of your trip if it is outside Europe, or more than 28 weeks if it is within Europe. On this basis, you would be insured to cancel the trip if your pregnancy will be more advanced than either 24 or 28 weeks as detailed above at the end of the trip, and you were not aware of it at the time of booking. The insurance also provides cover for cancellation because of medical complications of pregnancy as certified by your Doctor.

3. My holiday is costing me £6,000 but there is only cover up to £5,000. Can I pay a supplement to cover for the extra risk?

In some circumstances it may be possible, please contact Voyager insurance.

4. I have just been posted to Iraq when I should be on holiday. Am I covered to cancel?

Yes. If you are a member of the Armed Forces and you are unexpectedly required for emergency and unavoidable duty, you are covered for cancellation. This also applies in certain circumstances to police, fire, nursing, ambulance or coastguard services provided that at the time of booking your trip you had no reason to believe that you would be called for duty.

5. I've just been made redundant. Can I cancel my holiday?

Yes, provided that you are entitled to payment under the current redundancy payment legislation and at the time of booking your trip you had no reason to believe that you would be made redundant.

6. If I have to return home for an insured reason, will the insurance compensate me for my lost holiday?

Curtailment means cutting your planned journey short by early return to the United Kingdom or admission to hospital overseas as an in-patient so that you lose the benefit of accommodation you have paid for. The insurance will pay on the basis of the number of complete nights accommodation lost. In respect of travel expenses, the insurance will pay for any additional costs, but not for the loss of pre-booked arrangements.

Travel Delay and Abandonment

1. If I am delayed at the port due to a blockade of the port am I covered to cancel?

If you are delayed at the port for 12 hours or more for any of the reasons specified in the policy wording, you are entitled to the delay benefit as stated. If this is due to a strike or similar action, this must not have already started or been announced at the time you arranged your trip. However, occasionally it may be necessary to abandon the trip, in which case you are covered for the cost of the trip to the maximum claimable under section 1.

2. If I'm stuck at the airport because my flight is delayed can I cancel and go home?

Yes, if the flight has been delayed for 12 hours or more because of strike, riot, civil commotion, accident, mechanical breakdown or bad weather.

Personal Accident

- 1. Why is the personal accident payment reduced for me? I am 72 years old and I am paying extra premium anyway.

The personal accident payment is reduced for those aged under 16 and over 65. This is because the benefit is designed to compensate the insured's family in the event that the insured is unable to work. Those under 16 and over 65 are generally not in full time employment.

Medical Expenses

- 1. Am I covered for the dentist abroad?

Yes, up to £350 for emergency dental treatment to natural teeth for the immediate relief of pain only.

- 2. I don't need travel insurance because I'm covered under the EHIC. Is this right?

This is a common misconception. The EHIC in Europe and Medicare in Australia provide reciprocal health arrangements with the UK. However, there are many restrictions such as payment is often limited to a percentage of the total cost; it only applies in certain cases; on-going drugs to treat the condition are not covered nor are ambulance costs and repatriation costs. Under Emergency Medical and Associated Expenses – section 2, you will not have to pay a policy excess if your claim is reduced by using the EHIC.

Medical Pre-Screening Service

From the date of inception.
- 5. If I've already booked my holiday, can I wait and buy the insurance from the date of travel?
You can, but you run the risk of being liable for any charges should you have to cancel in the meantime. We would recommend cover commencing from the date of booking rather than the date of travel.
- 6. Am I covered if I have to go into hospital after buying the insurance and before I travel?
Yes, you can cancel subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, if you've already booked your trip and are forced to cancel. For any future bookings you should contact the Pre-Screening Service.
